STUDENT OPINION ON PRESIDENCY SOUGHT IN NEW GATER POLL TODAY

"Ruge's Poll Was Phoney," Say Demos; Demand Vote By Entire State Student Body

By DICK CUSHING

Loyal Democrats at State, incensed at what they call the "phoney" presidential poll in last week's Gater, are demanding belligerently that the issue be placed before the entire student body in a more representative balloting.

The Gater, therefore, always ready to comply with the wishes of the students, hereby presents a poll on the forthcoming election which is designed to reflect an accurate cross section of student opinion.

Reverse Opinion

Last semester the Gater ran a poll on the presidential candidates and 75 per cent of the ballots returned favored President Roosevelt as the Democratic nominee for a Fourth Term.

Since then considerable political water has passed the bridge, and last week Gater reporter George Ruge cornered 35 students and announced that New York's Governor Tom Dewey was favored over Roosevelt, 20 votes to 13, with two undecided.

Reaction Hot

The furore which followed just about took the varnish off the door of the Gater editorial room.

"Who conducted this poll, and what's the idea of picking just 35 to represent the school?" was the typical hot retort.

One good Democrat with an FDR button on his coat wanted to know if Ruge was on the GOP payroll. The Gater assured him that Ruge isn't.

Cross Section

Ruge, hurriedly putting his hat over his Dewey button, explained that his poll was conducted on the theory that one person in 20

English Instructor Added To Faculty

A recent newcomer to the faculty is Dr. Bernice Davies, instructor of English, who taught previously at the University of Minnesota, and at Yankton College, Yankton, South Dakota.

Born in Iowa, Dr. Davies attended Tabor College, Tabor, Iowa, where she received her A.B. degree. Later, she received her M.A. from the University of Iowa.

TEACHER TRAINING TEST DATES GIVEN

An announcement from the registrar's office revealed that the following teachers' training tests will be given:

Saturday, October 21 — — Arithmetic, Room 210, 9:00 a.m. Sign up in registrar's office.

Saturday, October 21 — — Penmanship, Room 117, 11 a.m. Sign up in registrar's office.

Additions Made To Franciscan Staff

Franciscan associated editors were appointed Wednesday at a Board of Publications meeting held in the Executive Board room.

Positions of Editor-in-Chief and Business Manager were decided upon at a previous meeting with the appointment of George Ruge and Caroline Nahman.

FRANCISCAN EDITOR. George Ruge, new editor of the Franciscan, looks over back issues as he plans the 1945 yearbook.

New appointments made were Terrye Flax, Sports Editor, Mary McGrath, Advisory Editor; Victor Pavolitich, Senior Editor; Elaine Stockel, Clubs; Lucille Morse and Ed Murray, Art Editors, and Fred Hanson, Photographic Editor.

Senior pictures for the Franciscan will be taken exclusively by Fisher Studio. There will be no outside pictures accepted for either the senior or club pages from any other studio.

Members present at the Board of Publication meeting were Betty Cloak, Director of the Board of Publications; George Ruge, Editor of the Franciscan; Caroline Nahman, Business Manager of the Franciscan; Dr. Edward Cassady, Sponsor of Publications, and Pat Leake, Business Manager of the Golden Gater.

JOB OFFERS PLENTIFUL

Offers for jobs have reached a new high this year. In 1938, when there were more students, there were approximately 210 placement calls; Now with fewer students, there have been well over 2,000, Secretary Alma Downey of the Placement Office says. There is an urgent need for teachers in the rural as well as city schools.

Nation's First Inter-racial Church, With Dr. Fisk Co-Pastor, Great Success

Negroes and whites knelt together in prayer last Sunday in the country's first inter-racial church of which State College's philosophy and theology professor, Dr. Alfred G. Fisk, is co-pastor.

It was the inauguration of the Fellowship Church of All People at Franklin and Geary Streets, conducted by the internationally-known negro minister, Dr. Howard Thurman.

Foundation Laid

The meeting was generously termed a great success and laid the foundation for what its sponsors hope will be greater racial cooperation in a world threatened by inter-racial strife.

Dr. Fisk started the church last December with funds donated by the Presbyterian Board. He took over a building at Post and Octavia Streets formerly occupied by the Japanese Presbyterian Church, and started services.

A Detroit negro student, Albert B. Cleage Jr., was his first co-pastor.

Had Faith

"I believed we could have a truly inter-racial church," Dr. Fisk said, "because I believe in Christianity and the brotherhood of man.

"Today our inter-racial church has 100 persons who regularly attend and the proportion of Negroes and whites is 50-50. We also have Filipinos and Mexicans who come here regularly."

Share Equally

At the Fellowship Church, Negroes and whites share equally in teaching and learning. They sing together in the choir and prepare and share together the church dinners.

"The finest thing about our church," said Dr. Fisk, "is that there is no conscious effort on the par o nrof ceti NshaETAOIN the part of one racial group to be 'nice' to the other. Their genuine friendliness and unity is completely spontaneous."

Children Attend

A "Winter Camp" is in progress at the church now. Every Saturday morning children attend classes and learn the various racial, religious and national groups that make up American society.

This camp is patterned after the summer camp held last summer at which 48 children, Negroes and whites, aged 6 to 13, attended.

Board Probes Loan Fund; Executive Committee Formed Under By-Laws

Investigation as to the source of the student loan fund is being made by the Board of Directors. A committee consisting of Dean Mary A. Ward, Mrs. Blanche Ellsworth chairman, and Caroline Nahman have made a request to President Alexander C. Roberts for a report as to the source of the loan fund wris has been subscribed to by student body members as well as alumni members.

"The purpose of this committee", stated President Jim Lindsey at a meeting held yesterday, "is to determine whether the student body should continue to subscribe to the fund." The investigation arose from the new articles of incorporation.

Chairman Ellsworth read to the Board a letter which will be sent to President Roberts requesting historical data on the fund and that the balance of the loan be transferred from the business office to the business manager of the student body.

$1200 IN FUND

If established as a special trust fund and not a student body fund, the loan would not be subject to liability, and for this reason Attorney Fouke recommended that the loan association not be added to the student administration. The balance of the student loan is now about $1200, said Mrs. Ellsworth.

An executive committee to act in the absence of the Board of Directors was elected under the new by-laws of the constitution. The duties of this Board will be to conduct by majority vote all detailed affairs of the corporation, exercising all powers of the Board of Directors. Members of this board are: Mrs. Blanche Ellsworth, Harry Erlich, Beverly Forney, Evelyn Woodard and President Jim Lindsey.

Faculty Student Body Cards

Faculty student body cards, which have already been made and are waiting distribution, were discussed by board members as to the price to be charged and the benefits to be received by purchasing such a card. It was decided unanimously that a committee consisting of Beverly Forney, Barbara Krase and Caroline Nahman present to the faculty the purpose of the card.

Class Election Postponed Until Monday

Class elections have been postponed until Monday because of complications that have arisen regarding. balloting. However, the elections will definitely be held Monday in the student body office.

Alpha Phi Gamma Pledges Will Sell Gater on Market St.

Be on hand tonight at 6:30 on the corner of Fifth and Market streets when Gaters will be sold to the multitude for the tidy sum of five pennies by Alpha Phi Gamma pledges. It was Carl Sandburg, who once said, "Let him be a fool every once in a while and have no shame at ever having been a fool — yet learning something out of every folly."

...With this bit of philosophical data on hand, Alpha Phi Gamma conveys belated thanks to Sandburg and sets forth on a newer and bigger plan of action during traditional collegiate Hades Week.

Three members of the press have been chosen on the basis of merit, from many journalistic aspirants and Alpha Phi Gamma hopefuls. The chosen three include: George Ruge, Editor of the Franciscan; Terrye Flax, Sports Editor and Don Pagani, Assistant Sports Editor. Although this group represents the smallest number of persons to be pledged to the campus honorary co-educational fraternity, it was necessary in order to uphold the high standard of Alpha Phi Gamma.

Pledging ceremony was held on Wednesday evening at the house of Frank Gillio, former student at San Francisco State College. Tentative plans were then drawn up by Ed Murray, pledgemaster, for the initiation of these three journalistic greats.

Traditionally one of the most versatile and active of fraternities on the campus, Alpha Phi Gamma has been the motivating force behind many State functions including the Chickens' Ball. Possibilities or resuming the Chickens' Ball were discussed at the last meeting.

PRE-NURSING GROUP WILL MEET TODAY

Alpha Pi Nu, pre-nursing sorority, will hold a meeting at noon today in room A110.

Among the cadet nurses at the Newcomers' Tea last Friday were former Staters Shirley Harris of Mt. Zion Hospital and Kay Payton of Children's Hospital. Guest speakers were Mrs. Ervin from the University of California and Miss Boettcher from St. Joseph's College of Nursing.

Plans were made for the semi-annual Rush Tea at the first meeting of the fall semester of Alpha Chi Epsilon, childhood education association. The new president, Kaye Bannister presided.

Shirley Bleile, vice-president of the sorority will be in charge of the affair. Qualified girls suggested by sorority members will be rushed at this informal tea.

HALLOWE'EN HOP OCTOBER 27th; LIVE MUSIC BY BAILEY FEATURED

State girls are being asked to attend the AMS-AWS Hallowe'en Hop to be held October 27 in the Women's Gym. Ray Milton, president of AMS promises there will be enough men at the dance to make it successful.

"If the Gater Dance can be considered an established precedent we will undoubtedly have more than enough men to go around," said the sauve Milton when interviewed.

Proceeds from the dance will go to the Student's Lounge which is nearing completion.

Live musice for the hop will be under the direction of Dick Bailey. Tickets will be sold on campus next week. They will be fifty cents for student body members and seventy-five cents for those not holding student body cards.

Gelles Stars in State Win; Team Meets Mission, Balboa

Soccer again takes the limelight in State's sports world when the Gaters meet Mission High today and Balboa High Monday at the new campus. Both teams are rated high and the contests should be close.

The Haight Street boys overwhelmed a hustling Samuel Gompers outfit by a score of 4 to 2 last Friday on the fog drenched field of the campus to be.

It was Marc Gelles, the 140 pound dynamo, who let the attack by scoring all of State's goals.

The first tally occurred less than five minutes after the opening of the game. Golles headed the ball through the posts after receiving a corn kick from Pete Dalton.

Vince MacGrath executed a beautiful pass to Golles who put it through for the second score.

Gelles Again

In the second half John Nazar was responsible for the pass to Gelles for the third goal.

The clincher came with one minute to go. Dalten's shot from the right wing was blocked and the ball rebounded to Gelles who forcefully kicked it over for the final score.

The trade school boys tied the score twice; first in the opening half on a nice lay-up pass from Bob Crudo to Al Lawrence who scored with ease; again in the first minutes of the second half when Lawrence virtually dribbled the length of the field to knock the ball between the posts.

The game was not as close as the score indicates. The Gaters held the upper hand throughout the contest and threatened a number of times. An additional goal was scored but due to offsides was not counted.

TOUCH FOOTBALL TEAMS ORGANIZED

"Plans for an intramural touch football program are progressing rapidly", stated Coach Dan Farmer yesterday.

Five complete teams have already been formed and still another is being organized. For opposition on the sixth squad please see Coach Farmer as soon as possible.

The schedule for the season has not yet been announced, but as soon as it is, it will be published in the Gater.

W. A. A.

By JUNE MEEHAN

Summarizing W.A.A. events for the week, we present here a few highlights on the different sports.

HOCKEY

Thirteen State co-eds turned out Monday at noon for a furious game of hockey in which the purple team tangled with the whites.

Gloria Gamba seemed to be enjoying mother nature immensely, we gather, having spent most of her time on the ground. A few of our players include Mary Fabl, center forward; Dorothy Damon, left center; Shirley Jones and many other active members coming out for this sport.

W.A.A. members in charge of the playday arrangements are Elizabeth Ann Howard, chairman; Mary Falbo, entertainment; Beth Graham, athletic equipment; Charlotte Plumb, officials; Evelyn Lonich, decorations; Marge Erickson, registration; Clydagh Enos, opener; Carolyn Rosewall, hostesses; Betty Petrakis, program; Margaret Valdovenas, invitations; and Doris Hickenbottom, rainy day program.

Faculty members sponsoring the playday are Mrs. Adelia Spangenburg in charge of food, Mrs. Rowe in charge of registration and rainy days, Mrs. Eleanor Wakefield in charge of entertainment, Mrs. Bernice Peterson in charge of decorations and Mrs. Doris Holt is in charge of arrangements.

Main topic of discussion at the W.A.A. meeting Wednesday was the high school playday, scheduled for Nov. 18th. "Harvest Time" was the theme voted unanimously upon for this activity.

State Takes To Air To Defeat Struggling Indians

Uncorking a surprising offense with which they completely baffled their oponents, State's fighting J. V. gridiron eleven marched all over the field dragging the Indians of Lowell High behind them to the tune of 20 to 0 yesterday at the new campus

NOONTIME HOCKEY. These hard-working Staters are playing a bit of hockey on the Upper Field, a regular noon pastime.

Everywhere the Cardinals turned they ran into forceful opposition. Don Pagani, playing slashing ball at center, Hal Fox, putting in a spectacular performance as right guard, Frank Hutchinson, pass-snagging end, and Tyree Banks and Elm Roelling, outstanding in the back field, were continually dropping the Indians for losses, and not once did they allow them to get near pay-off territory.

As Coach Dan Farmer remarked, "Fight and spirit like our boys have is bound to make a winning team eventually. I'm glad it was now, not later."

Driving Start

Receiving the kick-off on the Gater's 25 yard line, Banks ran it back to his own 35. Roelling then got off a short kick, and it was Lowell's ball on State's 44. The Indians were not able to make much progress, however, and on the fourth down, with six yards to go, punted.

Banks again took the ball. This time on State's 20 and carried it five yards. After three downs which failed to net them more than three yards, Roelling kicked into the end zone making it first down for Lowell on the Lowell 20.

First Tally

The second quarter opened with the Red and White Cardinal's in possession of the ball on their own 25. Sterling Curry, Gater end, made a beautiful block as they attempted to kick and State took over as Pagani fell on the ball on Lowell's 18. Then the Gaters started to roll. Roelling completed a 12 yard pass to Curry, making it first down with goal to go. Then after gaining two yards on a running play, Captain Roelling again took to the air as he heaved the pigskin into the arms of Hutchinson waiting across the goal line.

Attempting a place kick for the extra point, Roelling failed and the score remained 6 to 0.

Another Score

About five minutes later, the Gater's again hit pay dirt when the same combination, Roelling to Hutchinson, clicked for the second time from Lowell's 30 yard line.

The conversion was good, bringing the total State points to 13.

With just a few minutes to go in the last quarter of the game, the Indians lost the ball on downs on their own 16. Roelling then drove for ten yards in two downs and the Gater's were once more in a scoring position. Three plays later, Roelling covered the remaining two yards and plunged over the goal line.

Again the conversion was made and just four downs later the game ended with State on the better side of a 20 to 0 score.

IMPORTANCE OF YOUTH STRESSED AT ASSEMBLY WELCOMING FROSH

Keynoting the welcome given incoming students at the semi-annual freshmen assembly last Wednesday, William Marrinan, acting chairman of the assembly, urged "a stronger faith in those institutions which we are fighting to preserve today."

Marrinan's address was followed by those of James Lindsey, student body president; Dr. Elias T. Arnesen, professor of English, and Dr. Alexander C. Roberts, president of the College.

After introducing student body treasurer Beverly Forney, acting Commissioner Jean Smith and Vice President Jean Cantwell, President Lindsey explained to the new students some of the opportunities and responsibilities that confronted them at State.

"As members of the student body we have again turned over a new leaf," Lindsey said. "This year we have a new constitution, new officers, and new responsibilities. Whatever your interests, we have a place for you in our college life. We need new personalities and new ideas."

Speaking on "The Discovery of the Future," Dr. Arnesen said, "I have always looked with admiration upon this land of America which has become my own native land. The vastness of the American continent is symbolic of its spiritual greatness. The pioneer heritage that overcame all obstacles is still strong. To assume that the frontier is gone is far from the truth. There are still undiscovered frontiers ahead for you young people."

President Roberts welcomed the incoming students to the College in a talk entitled "Adventure Ahead." For the youth of America there is always "adventure ahead," Dr. Roberts said. "Yours is the opportunity to make every day at college an adventure into the realm of the spirit and of the intellect. Never has the world presented more opportunities for the young people eager to learn and to participate. On your shoulders lies the future of America."

Under the direction of Dr. William Knuth, the college orchestra played the "Finale of the Heidelberg Symphony in E Flat." The A Capella Choir, directed by Mr. Roy Freeburg, sang a Chorale by Bach. As an encore number, the orchestra and choir joined in singing a medley of Victor Herbert melodies, arranged by Dr. Knuth.

Following the assembly, the new students were welcomed at the Freshmen Reception held in the activities Room .President and Mrs. Alexander C. Roberts headed the reception line, which included the college deans, P. F. Valentine, Walter J. Homan, John Butler, Mary A. Ward, and David Cox. Faculty members representing all of the departments chatted informally with the newcomers, who were introduced by hostesses, members of the Advisory Council, who also served the refreshments.

RUSTY SPEISS TO WED NAVY FLIER

Inger (Rusty) Speiss and Ensign Kenneth Lee, former San Francisco State College football player, announced their engagement this week at the home of the bride elect's mother, Mrs. Astrid Spiess.

Parchment scrolls carrying the surprise announcement were given to guests at the cocktail party.

Ensign Lee recently received the air medal for shooting down a Japanese bomber in the Aleutian area.

COMEDY CHOSEN FOR TERM PLAY; MEN NEEDED FOR MAJOR ROLES

"Out of the Frying Pan", a light comedy, has been chosen as College Theatre's term play, according to director Adele Menjou. Rehearsals are scheduled to begin on the 23rd of this month.

Tryouts,which were held Monday and Tuesday, revealed a small showing of manpower. Despite the fact that publicity director John Harvey worked himself into a frenzy appealing for men via the public address system personal letters, and general notices, the male part of the student body showed little interest in the activity. Some men have volunteered, but there are still openings for good male roles. Those interested should contact director Menjou, general manager Barbara Carle, or any member of College Theatre. The turnout of women was good, according to reports, with some excellent talent being discovered.

The play is a fast-moving story about a group of ambitious young actors and actresses who rent an apartment together to save money.. After a series of ups and downs, they get their big break when a producer rents the apartment below. A mild murder, a series of screwballeries and heartthrobs, and some fascinating characters, combine to make this play an absorbing and delightful piece of entertainment.

Conspicuous by their absence are the veterans of College Theatre, most of whom have graduated. Miss Carle, in an interview, stressed the fact that College Theatre needs new talent of all kinds.

Have a "Coke" = Welcome back

. . . or giving a returned soldier a taste of home

There's an easy way to make a soldier on furlough feel right at home. It's to offer him refreshing Coca-Cola. Have a "Coke" is always the hospitable thing to say. In many lands overseas, as in your own living room, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes, —has become a happy symbol of hospitality, at home as everywhere else.

Ruge Defends His 35-Man Poll Favoring Tom Dewey

George Ruge, campus politician and GOP patriot, strongly defended today his poll of campus opinion which appeared in last week's Gater and which gave Governor Tom Dewey a decided edge over President Roosevelt.

He cited figures from a recent Gallup Poll to the effect that voters of college mentality generally favor Dewey.

Poll Will Decide

To this, Cushing's answer was "Well, boys, let's fight this out with ballots. The Gater Poll in this week's issue will give every Stater a chance to vote. Let the ballots talk!"

Replies

Said Ruge: "Cushing's attack upon the poll which I turned in to the Gater, and which displayed a definite Dewey trend on campus, is wholly unjustified. I feel that the local poll was pretty accurate. To back this stand up, I refer Mr. Cushing, and other campus New Dealers, to the Gallup Poll which appeared in the San Francisco News three days after my campus poll was completed."

Cites Poll

The Poll which Ruge refered to was conducted by the Gallup people to determine if education had any influence upon presidential preference. The poll appeared in the Oct. 9 News. Its conclusions revealed that univerity or college-educated voters prefered Thomas Dewey to Franklin Roosevelt, 2 to 1. It was discovered by the Gallup people that New Deal voters fell into the lower educational brackets.

Here's the poll:

	Roosevelt	Dewey
Voters who had Grammar School only or no schooling	58%	42%
Voters who attended high school	47%	53%
Voters who had College training	35%	65%

The result of the national poll paralleled the State campus poll of last week significantly.

would make a fair representation of student opinion as a whole. The Democratic answer to this one was: It depends entirely on who is picked.

While most Staters are not yet of voting age, their opinions on national issues many times is of value to national sentiment. Considerable heat has been applied to lower the voting age, and the nation as a whole would like to know if the 18-year-olds thus given the ballot would know how to use it.

Wide Choice

The Gater Presidential Poll lists the two opposing tickets, the Republican combine of Dewey and John Bricker, and the Democratic pair of Roosevelt and Senator Harry Truman of Missouri, plus Socialist candidate Norman Thomas, and space to write in your candidate if you choose.

The issues have been hashed out over the radio and in the newspapers for months and should be familiar to every student. On the basis of these issues the ballots should be cast rather than any sentimental party tie or because your parents vote one way or another. The Gater wants your individual opinion.

Big Vote Urged

Both candidates are urging a large vote. So is the Gater. Clip the coupon on the bottom of the back page (an ad is on the back, so it won't hurt your Gater) and deposit it in the Gater Box in College Hall opposite the Co-op; near the mailboxes, in other words.

Let's find out just how student opinion runs on the vital presidential issue which will mean so much in the postwar world. You asked for it; here's your chance to vote and voice your preference. It's Democracy at work. You can't do this in Germany.

SPEECH FRATERNITY HOLDS PLEDGE TEA

Pledging new members for the semester, of Delta Sigma will hold a tea this afternoon from four to five-thirty, according to Eleanor Gigli, president of the organization. New sponsor of the honorary speech fraternity is Edna W. Bock of the English department.

Plans are being made for the Jessie D. Casebolt Trophy by this fraternity's debate manager, Caroline Nahaman, and Mary Geannacopulas.

Delta Sigma and faculty members will hold a formal panel discussion on October 25, in Annex A12. The topic will be Roosevelt vs. Dewey. This panel will be open to all those interested in attending.

Those assisting Eleanor Gigli with the tea will be: John Harvey, Caroline Nahaman, Bill Marrinan, Mary Geannacopulas, Mary Meniktas, Harry Erlich, Don Pagani, Naomi Jefferies, Elena Browne, Edna Fracchia, Bob Lamberson, Ed Murray, and Myra Warren.

All students interested in speech are invited to attend the tea.

Rabbi Saul White to Address IRC Monday

Rabbi Saul White of San Fransisco will address the International Relations Club and the Student Christian Association next Monday in the Activities Room at noon. The subject will be "What Does Zionism Stand For?"

This topic is of vital importance in peace arrangements growing out of war.

On Saturday, Oct. 21, beginning at 4:00 p.m., the International Relations Club and the Student Christian Association will give a party at Sigmund Stern Grove.

Those planning to go are requested to "RSVP" box 6.

Two Annexes are Being Re-roofed

Because of the postponement of the building program of the new campus until after the war, Annexes A and B must be completely reroofed, says College Comptroller L. C. Nee.

The roofing operations have been going on for two weeks. So far only Annex B has been completed and it is estimated that another 10 days will be necessary to finish the job on Annex A. The contract is being taken care of by the State Board of Architecture.

ART FEDERATION PLANS EXHIBITS AND EXCURSIONS

Plans are being formed by the Art Federation for the fall semester and several ideas were brought forth at the meeting last Friday. There have thus far been many sign-ups for poster work and plans for art exhibits in the activities room. Guest members will be included in the fall program and the Fed. is considering extending an invitation to Dr. Morely of the art museum.

Excursions, not especially art but things of interest to the students, were discussed and suggestions were made as to visiting museums, a theater-opera house, Chinese theater and Russian restaurants. These excursions are for international appreciation and understanding, social contact, and art relationships.

Dr. Gutmann, faculty member on leave attached to the army intelligence and doing special work in photography, has sent several photographs to Dr. Edward Cassady, which can be obtained for exhibition on the bulletin board, he announced.

Ideas were expressed as to an arrangement of flowers in the Art Fed. room, 211, to bring life into the atmosphere.

New officers consist of President, Adele Pruitt; Vice-President, Laura Thompson; Treasurer, Jean Ingram; Secretary, Jacquiline Yeznog; and Historian and Social Chairman, Fern Heit.
